BIDDING PROCEDURES

Participation in the Bidding Process. Any party other than Stalking Horse that is interested in purchasing the Sale Property (a "Potential Bidder") may obtain relevant due diligence from the Trustee by:

(a) providing the Trustee with information regarding the bidder's financial ability to consummate purchase of the Sale Property.

(b) Inspect or view the Sale Property after providing proof of insurance and providing release of liability in form as approved by the Trustee, Lakeland Bank and Berkshire Bank.

Participation in the Auction. To participate in the bidding process and attend the Auction, a bidder must submit what is determined by the Trustee, with consent of Lakeland Bank, to be a "Qualified Bid." "Qualified Bid" means a written proposal for purchase of the Sale Property:

(a) whose value is greater than the sum of (i) the Cash Purchase Price ($287,000), (ii) the Break-Up Fee (Three (3%) Percent) and (iii) the Minimum Incremental Bid (defined below) or at least commencing at $310,000; and

(b) that is accompanied by a deposit of Ten (10%) Percent of the proposed purchase price (the "Good Faith Deposit") in the form of a certified check or cash payable to the order of the Bankruptcy Estate;

(c) that has substantially the same terms and conditions as the Stalking Horse APA;

(d) that is accompanied by reasonable evidence of committed financing or other ability to perform;

(e) that is timely submitted by the Bid Deadline (defined below); and

(f) that is irrevocable until two (2) business days after closing of the Sale and remains open until that time as a "back-up bid" at the last price and terms offered at the Auction.

(g) that if the Successful bidder is unable to consummate the sale following the Sale Hearing, the Trustee shall have the right to present any other bid obtained through the Bid Procedures to the Court for approval.

The Stalking Horse shall be deemed to be a Qualified Bid for the Sale Property (the "Stalking Horse Bid").

Bid Deadline. Each person wishing to bid on the Sale Property, except for the Stalking Horse, must deliver a bid to Trustee October 25, 2019 (the “Bid Deadline”) via mail and email to:

The Stalking Horse shall be entitled to receive copies of all competing bids and supporting documentation promptly up receipt by Seller.

Report on Bids. If no Qualified Bids, other than the Stalking Horse Bid, are received by the Bid Deadline, the Trustee will report the absence of other Qualified Bids to the Bankruptcy Court and all parties in interest by filing a notice with the Bankruptcy Court. At the Sale Hearing, the Trustee will seek entry of an order approving the Stalking Horse’s purchase of the Sale Property pursuant to the terms set forth in the Stalking Horse APA and proposed Sale Order.

Auction. If there are at least two Qualified Bids for the Sale Property (including the Stalking Horse Bid), the Trustee will conduct an auction at the US Bankruptcy Court on October 29, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. at U.S. Bankruptcy Court – Burlington, Federal Building, 11 Elmwood Ave. Burlington, VT, at which time each person that has timely submitted a Qualified Bid will be entitled to participate as a bidder. The Stalking Horse may participate in the auction and Sale Hearing by telephone. Bidding will begin with the highest and best Qualified Bid and continue in increments of not less than $10,000 (the “Minimum Incremental Bid”), in all rounds taking into account the right of the stalking horse to the Break-up fee and expenses reimbursement, and will not conclude until each participating bidder has had the opportunity to submit any additional Qualified Bid(s). At the conclusion of bidding, The Trustee will announce the determination as to the party (the “Successful Bidder”) submitting the highest and best bid (the “Successful Bid”) for the Sale Property and will request Bankruptcy Court approval of the Successful Bid at the Sale Hearing.
